

Internationally famous cartoonist David Langdon captures the drama and the thoughts of nearly 4,000 fans who saw Wycombe Wanderers beat Dagenham 1-0 to clinch the Rothmans Isthmian League championship on Saturday with an 85th minute goal from Keith Searle. David, who is a vice-president of the club, marked the occasion with this cartoon exclusively for the 'Free Press'.